

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ALICIA HARRIS,

No. C-08-5198 EMC

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO QUASH

VECTOR MARKETING CORPORATION,

(Docket No. 215)

Defendant.

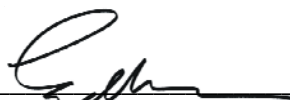

Currently pending before the Court is Plaintiff's motion to quash subpoenas issued by Defendant to certain of Plaintiff's former employers. In essence, Plaintiff is willing to have the former employers provide information about her job title, whether she worked there, and when. Defendant wants additional information from the employers – i.e., hourly rate of pay and whether the termination was voluntary or involuntary. Defendant's request for the additional information is denied. Its relevance is, at best, marginal and not enough to outweigh Plaintiff's privacy interest.

Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion to quash is hereby GRANTED in part and DENIED in part.

This order disposes of Docket No. 215.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: August 16, 2010

EDWARD M. CHEN
United States Magistrate Judge
